PaperOne All Purpose Premium Paper is your ideal office partner. Enjoy smooth continuous printing with our precision-cut edges, plus superb image contrast and presentation on our super high white paper. PaperOne is also environmentally friendly produced from 100% plantation acacia trees. And if you want your paper documents to last, PaperOne is ISO 9706 certified for archival quality – meaning that it would last for 20 years with little or no change in properties. It is no wonder that PaperOne is the one and only office paper in more than 30 countries around the world.
